WHAT: Sunday Bloody Sunday - Bloody Mary Competition

WHEN: Sunday, October 12, 2014

WHERE: GreenStreet

ATTENDANCE: 300

EVENT DETAILS: The crowd came thirsty for Houstonia's first ever Sunday Bloody Sunday bloody mary competition. Sponsored by GreenStreet and Deep Eddy Vodka, twelve restaurants and bars went head-to-head to win the title of Best Bloody Mary as the House of Blues Gospel Choir belted out beautiful songs. In between sips of tomato-ey goodness, guests stopped by the Evamor hydration station to cleanse their palates, accessorized up for the photo booth provided by Fun Fab Photo Booths, and played yard games such as life-size jenga, giant chess, and corn hole.

Proceeds from ticket sales benefited SNAP. Thank you to everyone who attended and volunteered, and to the participating restaurants, sponsors and event partners for helping make Sunday Bloody Sunday a success!

BENEFITING: SNAP (Spay-Neuter Assistance Program)

Thanks for Making Sunday Bloody Sunday a Success!

And The Winner Is...

On Sunday, October 12, Houstonia hosted our first bloody mary competition downtown at GreenStreet. Restaurants and bars from all over the city called on their expert bartenders to serve the best, most memorable mary ever using Deep Eddy Vodka.

The competition was stiff, with twelve strong contenders in

- · Beaver's · Brick & Spoon
- · El Big Bad
- Hearsay on The Green
 House of Blues
 Line & Lariat (Hotel Icon)
- Lowbrow
 McCormick & Schmick's
- · Ouattro (Four Seasons)
- Ragin' Cajun
- The Houston Club

Some were spicier than others and some were adorned with sliders. A number were served with an extravagent collection of garnishes from the flavorful pickled favorites to more unexpected choices such as beef jerky, polish sausage, and

In the end, we collected over 300 votes. Are you ready to find out who makes the BEST bloody mary?
